Recipes For This Day

Each recipe stays inside your workbook ingredients plus pantry basics only.

Flax Seed Water

Soak and Stir

A simple soaked drink that feels light but grounding first thing in the morning.

Prep 2 min

Cook 0 min

Flax Seeds

Water

- 1 Stir 1 tablespoon flax seeds into a large glass of water.
- 2 Let it soak overnight or at least 6 hours so the water softens and thickens slightly.
- 3 Stir once more before drinking. Sip slowly while the seeds are suspended.

Chilled water makes this easier to drink, and the brief soak softens the texture noticeably.

Celery Juice

Blend or Juice

Clean, fresh, and mild, with the option to keep the fiber in for a fuller drink.

Prep 5 min

Cook 0 min

Celery

Water

- 1 Roughly chop celery and add it to a blender with a small splash of water.
- 2 Blend until smooth, adding just enough water to help it move.
- 3 Drink as-is for more fiber, or strain for a lighter juice texture.

Use only a little water so the celery flavor stays fresh instead of diluted.

Mango Smoothie

Blender

Thick, naturally sweet, and creamy from banana without needing anything extra.

Prep 5 min

Cook 0 min

Mango

Banana

Coconut Water

- 1 Add chopped mango, banana, and cold coconut water to a blender.
- 2 Blend until silky and thick, scraping down the sides if needed.
- 3 Pour immediately for the freshest taste and creamiest texture.

If the fruit is cold, the smoothie tastes richer without needing ice.

Orange Chicken

Pan and Oven

Citrusy and savory with caramelized edges on the chicken and crisp-tender broccoli.

Prep 12 min

Cook 20 min

Chicken Breast

Navel Orange

Broccoli

Coconut Oil

Olive Oil

Sesame Seeds

- 1 Season chicken breast with salt and pepper, then sear it in a hot pan with coconut oil until lightly golden.
- 2 Transfer the chicken to the oven to finish cooking while you toss broccoli with olive oil, salt, and pepper and roast it until the edges darken.
- 3 Return the pan to medium heat, squeeze in the navel orange juice, and let it reduce to a glossy citrus coating.
- 4 Slice the chicken, toss it in the reduced orange glaze, and plate with the roasted broccoli.
- 5 Finish with sesame seeds for crunch.

Roasting the broccoli separately keeps it crisp instead of watery, which makes the orange glaze taste sharper and cleaner.

Beans

Stovetop
Pan

A fast pan-cooked green bean side with blistered spots and a clean savory finish.

Prep 5 min Cook 10 min

Green Beans Olive Oil

- 1 Heat a wide pan with olive oil until hot.
- 2 Add green beans in one layer and season with salt and pepper.
- 3 Cook, tossing only occasionally, until the beans blister in places but stay slightly crisp.
- 4 Serve right away while the beans still have a little snap.

Leaving the beans mostly undisturbed at first gives better browning and more flavor.
